Re: ECF No. 5587

United States District Court
Northern District of California

Before the Court is the Indirect Purchaser Plaintiffs’ motion pursuant to Ninth Circuit mandate to reconsider and amend final approval order, final judgment, and fee order. ECF No. 5587. The Court construes the motion as one for preliminary approval and grants it.

I. BACKGROUND

A. Original Settlement Agreements

The factual history of this case is well known to the parties and is contained in the Court’s prior orders. The case is predicated upon an alleged conspiracy to price-fix cathode ray tubes (“CRTs”), a core component of tube-style screens for common devices including televisions and computer monitors. The conspiracy ran from March 1, 1995 to November 25, 2007, involved many of the major companies that produced CRTs, and allegedly resulted in overcharges of billions of U.S. dollars to domestic companies that purchased and sold CRTs or products containing CRTs. A civil suit was originally filed in 2007, ECF No. 1, consolidated by the Joint Panel on Multidistrict Litigation shortly thereafter, see ECF No. 122, assigned as a Multidistrict Litigation case (“MDL”) to Judge Samuel Conti, see id., and ultimately transferred to the undersigned in November 2015, see ECF No. 4162.

1 In 2015, one group of plaintiffs – the Indirect Purchaser Plaintiffs (“IPP Plaintiffs”) –
 2 reached class action settlements with six groups of corporate defendants: Phillips,<sup>1</sup> Panasonic,<sup>2</sup>
 4 Class” of “[a]ll persons and or entities who or which indirectly purchased in the United States for 5 their own use and not for resale, CRT Products manufactured and/or sold by the Defendants.” See
 6 ECF No. 1526 at 59-60; ECF Nos. 3862-1, 3862-2, 3862-3, 3862-4, 3862-5; ECF No. 3876-1
 7 (adopting the class definitions set forth in the operative complaint). The agreements also included
 8 Statewide Damages Classes of indirect purchasers of CRT products seeking money damages
 9 under the laws of 21 states and the District of Columbia (“22 Indirect Purchaser State Classes”).
 10 See id. The Court certified these classes for settlement purposes in its 2016 Final Approval Order.
 11 See ECF No. 4712 at 7, 36 (adopting Special Master’s report and recommendation, ECF No. 4351
 12 at 22-29, and conditionally certifying the 22 Indirect Purchaser State Classes).

13 The proposed settlements resolved all federal and state-law claims brought by the IPP 14 Plaintiffs against the settling Defendants and obligated the Defendants to pay a total of 15 $541,750,000. See ECF No. 3862-1 at 8; ECF No. 3862-2 at 8; ECF No. 3862-3 at 8; ECF No.
 16 3862-4 at 8; ECF No. 3862-5 at 8; ECF No. 3876-1 at 9-10. The settlements provided monetary 17 compensation for class members in the 22 Indirect Purchaser State Classes but did not provide 18

19 _____
 20 <sup>1</sup> The Philips entities include Koninklijke Philips N.V., Philips Electronics North America Corporation, Philips Taiwan Limited, and Philips do Brasil, Ltda. ECF No. 3862-1 at 2.

21 <sup>2</sup> The Panasonic entities include Panasonic Corporation, Panasonic Corporation of North America, and MT Picture Display Co. Ltd. ECF No. 3862-2 at 2.

22 <sup>3</sup> The Hitachi entities include Hitachi, Ltd., Hitachi Asia, Ltd., Hitachi America, Ltd., Hitachi
 23 Electronics Devices (USA), Inc., and Hitachi Displays, Ltd. ECF No. 3862-3 at 2.

24 <sup>4</sup> The Toshiba entities include Toshiba Corporation, Toshiba America, Inc., Toshiba America
 Information Systems, Inc., Toshiba America Consumer Products, L.L.C., and Toshiba America
 25 Electronic Components, Inc. ECF No. 3862-4 at 2.

26 <sup>5</sup> The Samsung entities include Samsung SDI Co. Ltd., Samsung SKI America, Inc., Samsung SDI
 Brazil Ltd., Tianjin Samsung SDI Co. Ltd, Shenzhen Samsung SDI Co., Ltd., SKI Malaysia Sdn.
 27 Bhd., and SDI Mexico S.A. de C.V. ECF No. 3862-5 at 2.

28 <sup>6</sup> The Thomson and TDA entities include Technicolor SA, Technicolor USA, Inc., and Technologies Displays Americas LLC. ECF No. 3876-1 at 2.

1 compensation for persons or entities in certain other states, which collectively are now
2 denominated the Omitted Repealer<sup>7</sup> State subclass (“ORS Subclass”).<sup>8</sup> The settlement also 3 provided no compensation to persons or entities in states whose laws do not provide for recovery
4 to indirect purchasers (“non-repealer states”), now denominated the Non-Repealer State subclass
5 (“NRS Subclass”).<sup>9</sup> See ECF Nos. 3862-1, 3862-2, 3862-3, 3862-4, 3862-5, 3876-1. Even though
6 they received no compensation, the settlements required members of the ORS and NRS
7 Subclasses to release their claims for injunctive relief, equitable monetary relief, and damages.

8 The agreements proposed a distribution plan which included: (1) a “weighted pro-rata
9 distribution to all members of the 22 Indirect Purchaser State Classes that filed valid claims,” (2) a
10 minimum payment of at least $25 per claimant, and (3) a maximum payment of “three times the 11 estimated money damages per claimant.” ECF No. 5587 at 30; see ECF No. 3862 ¶¶ 43-50. The 12 plan “assign[ed] different weights to different CRT products based on the overcharge evidence for 13 each.” ECF No. 5587 at 30; see ECF No. 3862 ¶¶ 44-49.

14 After this Court preliminarily approved the original settlements, the claims administrator
15 carried out a notice plan which involved: (1) mail and email notices sent to 10,082,690 unique
16 addresses, (2) publication of notice on the settlement website, (3) advertisements on Google, 17

18 <sup>7</sup> In Illinois Brick Co. v. Illinois, 431 U.S. 720 (1977), the Supreme Court held that only direct 19 purchasers could recover damages for price-fixing under Section 4 of the Clayton Act. Id. at 735.
20 As the Ninth Circuit has summarized, the Supreme Court “barred indirect purchasers’ suits, and 21 left the field of private antitrust enforcement to the direct purchasers.” Royal Printing Co. v.
22 Kimberly Clark Corp., 621 F.2d 323, 325 (9th Cir. 1980). In response to the Illinois Brick
23 decision, many states passed so-called “Illinois Brick repealer statutes,” which give indirect
24 purchasers the right to sue when firms violate analogous state antitrust laws. See, e.g., Robert H.
25 Lande, New Options for State Indirect Purchaser Legislation: Protecting the Real Victims of 26 Antitrust Violations, 61 Ala. L. Rev. 447, 448 (2010). Such states are referred to a “repealer
27 states.” A state which has not enacted such a statute is referred to as a “non-repealer state.”

28 <sup>8</sup> The ORS Subclass in its current iteration consists of Indirect Purchaser Plaintiffs in the following states: Arkansas, Massachusetts, Missouri, Montana, New Hampshire, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Carolina, and Utah. ECF No. 5518 at 1; ECF No. 5645 at 2. The parties now use the “ORS” abbreviation to signify “other repealer states” rather than “omitted repealer states.” ECF
No. 5645 at 1 n.1.

Alabama, Alaska, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, New Jersey, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Texas, Virginia, Washington, and Wyoming. ECF No. 5518 at 2.

1 Facebook, and other popular websites, and (4) print and online publications throughout the United 2 States, in both English and Spanish. See ECF No. 4071-1 ¶ 114; ECF No. 4371 ¶¶ 4-13. These 3 notices directed class members to the settlement website. See ECF No. 4371 ¶¶ 9-13. They also 4 advised class members of material settlement terms, the plan of distribution, and class counsel’s
5 intent to apply for an attorney fee award of up to one-third of the settlement fund. ECF No.
6 4071-1 ¶ 115.

7 On July 7, 2016, this Court granted final approval of the six settlement agreements. ECF
8 No. 4712 at 1. On August 3, 2016, the Court issued a Fee Order approving an attorney’s fees 9 award of $158,606,250 to class counsel, an amount comprising 27.5% of the settlement fund.
10 ECF No. 4740 at 2, 5-9. Two objectors appealed the settlement approval and fee award to the 11 Ninth Circuit. ECF No. 4741.

12 On October 1, 2018, while the appeals were pending, the IPP Plaintiffs filed a Motion 13 pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 62.1 for an Indicative Ruling on Their Motion to 14 Amend The IPP Fee Order and Amend the Plan of Distribution. ECF No. 5335. Counsel for the 15 IPP Plaintiffs proposed to modify the earlier settlement by reducing the attorney’s fees award by 16 $6 million and using those funds to compensate plaintiffs in three states – Massachusetts,
17 Missouri, and New Hampshire – that were omitted from the original settlement (“Omitted 18 Repealer States”). Id. at 8.

19 The Court denied the motion on November 8, 2018. ECF No. 5362. The Court concluded
20 that it had erred by approving the settlement in the first place, and that the IPP Plaintiffs’ proposed 21 modifications did not cure all the defects in the settlement. Id. The Court’s primary concern was 22 that the settlement required class members in the Omitted Repealer States to release their claims
23 without compensation. See ECF No. 5362 at 1. However, the order also expressed “concerns
24 about the adequacy of the counsel who negotiated that settlement or whether they may have faced 25 a conflict of interest,” given that they had released some clients’ claims without compensation. Id.
26 at 1. In response to the Court’s order, the Ninth Circuit remanded “this case so that the district 27 court [could] reconsider its approval of the settlement.” See In re Cathode Ray Tube Antitrust
28

1 Litig., No. 16-16368 (9th Cir. Feb. 13, 2009), ECF No. 238 at 11. The Ninth Circuit did not
2 vacate this Court’s Final Approval, Final Judgement, or Fee Order. Id.

3 On remand, this Court confirmed the existing lead counsel for the IPP Plaintiffs and 4 appointed separate counsel for the ORS and NRS Subclasses. ECF Nos. 5535, 5518. The Court
5 then referred the matter to Magistrate Judge Corley for settlement. ECF No. 5427.

6 B. Amended Settlement Agreements

7 After the Ninth Circuit remanded this case, counsel for IPP Plaintiffs<sup>10</sup> and seven 8 Defendants engaged in mediation sessions before Magistrate Judge Corley and agreed to amend 9 the settlements. ECF No. 5531; ECF No. 5587-1 ¶¶ 2-3.

10 The amendments alter the settlements in three ways. First, they appoint new settlement
11 class representatives for the states of Hawaii, Nevada, New Mexico, and South Dakota.<sup>11</sup> Second,
12 they narrow the definition of “the Class” to include only the 22 Indirect Purchaser State Classes
13 certified for settlement in the Court’s 2016 Final Approval Order. ECF No. 5587-1 at 7, 13, 19, 14 25, 31, 38. The amended settlements no longer include a Nationwide Class. See ECF No. 5587 at 15 16; ECF No. 5587-1. Only members of the 22 Indirect Purchaser State Classes release their 16 claims against Defendants. Third, the amendments reduce each Defendant’s settlement 17 contribution by approximately 5.35%, for a total reduction of $29,000,000. ECF No. 5587 at 17;
18 see ECF No. 5587-1 at 7-8, 13-14, 19-20, 25-26, 31-32, 38-39. The amendments offset these 19 reductions in settlement amount by requesting that the Court reduce the attorney’s fees previously
20 awarded by $29,000,000. See id. Interest earned on the original settlement funds since their 2015
21 deposit in an escrow account will remain in the fund, except that class counsel will still be entitled
22 to seek a share of the accrued interest proportionate to their fee and expense award. ECF No. 5587

24 <sup>10</sup> On remand, the Court appointed separate counsel to represent the ORS and NRS Subclasses.
ECF Nos. 5518, 5535.

26 <sup>11</sup> On September 13, 2019, IPP Plaintiffs filed a stipulation amending their operative complaints to 27 substitute Sandra Riebow for Daniel Riebow as the named plaintiff for the state of 28 Hawaii; Gregory Painter for Gloria Comeaux as the named plaintiff for the state of Nevada;
MaryAnn Stephenson for Craig Stephenson as the named plaintiff for the state of New Mexico; and Donna Ellingson-Mack for Jeffrey Speaect as the named plaintiff for South Dakota. ECF
Nos. 5584-1, 5584-2. On September 16, 2019, the Court entered the Order. ECF No. 5585.

1 at 17; see ECF No. 5587-1 at 7-8, 13-14, 19-20, 25-26, 31-32, 38-39. All other terms of the 2 original settlement agreements and plan for distribution remain the same. ECF No. 5587-1 at 8, 3 14, 20, 26, 33, 39.

4 C. Motion for Preliminary Approval

5 On September 16, 2019, the IPP Plaintiffs filed a “motion pursuant to Ninth Circuit
 6 mandate to reconsider and amend final approval order, final judgment, and fee order.” ECF No.
 7 5587. In their motion, IPP Plaintiffs request that the Court “reconsider and approve the amended 8 settlements under Rule 23(e); order notice be given; and amend the Final Approval Order, the 9 Final Judgment, and the Fee Order . . . after a final hearing.” ECF No. 5587 at 37. The Court
 10 construes the motion as one for preliminary approval of the amended settlements between the 22
 11 Indirect Purchaser State Classes and Defendants. The ORS Subclass and NRS Subclass oppose 12 the motion. ECF No. 5607. The IPP Plaintiffs have filed a reply. ECF No. 5616.

13 II. JURISDICTION

14 The Court has jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2).

15 III. STANDING TO OBJECT

16 A. Legal Standard

17 A party seeking to invoke the Court’s jurisdiction has the burden of establishing standing.
 18 Steel Co. v. Citizens for a Better Environment, 523 U.S. 83, 103-04 (1998); see In re Hydroxycut
 19 Marketing and Sales Practices Litig., No. 09md2087 BTM (KSC), 2013 WL 5275618, at *2 (S.D.
 20 Cal. Sept. 17, 2013) (“The party seeking to invoke the Court’s jurisdiction—in this case, the 21 Objectors—has the burden of establishing standing.”). Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 22 23(e), “nonclass members have no standing to object to the settlement of a class action.” San 23 Francisco NAACP v. San Francisco Unified School Dist., 59 F. Supp. 2d 1021, 1032 (N.D. Cal.
 24 1999) (citing Gould v. Alleco, Inc., 883 F.2d 281, 284 (4th Cir. 1989) (“The plain language of 25 Rule 23(e) clearly contemplates allowing only class members to object to settlement proposals”)).

26 B. Discussion

27 The ORS and NRS Subclasses oppose the IPP Plaintiffs’ motion for preliminary approval.
 28 ECF No. 5607. The IPP Plaintiffs ask the Court to disregard these objections because the

1 “ORS/NRS Plaintiffs lack Article III standing to object to the Amendments . . . because they are 2 not members of the amended settlement class.” ECF No. 5616 at 7. The IPP Plaintiffs are correct.

3 The amended settlements state that the “‘Nationwide Class,’ . . . and members thereof
4 (except for members of the 22 Indirect Purchaser States Classes), are expressly excluded from ‘the 5 Class’ and are not bound by the Agreement.” See ECF No. 5587-1 at 7, 13, 19, 25, 31, 38. The 6 ORS/NRS Subclasses are members of the “Nationwide Class” but are not members of the 22
7 Indirect Purchaser State Classes. ECF No. 5616 at 8; see ECF No. 1526 at 59-60; ECF Nos.
8 3862-1, 3862-2, 3862-3, 3862-4, 3862-5; ECF No. 3876-1. Therefore, the persons and entities in 9 these subclasses are not members of the amended settlement Class and have no standing to object
10 to IPP Plaintiffs’ motion for preliminary approval of the amended settlements. See Kent v.
11 Hewlett-Packard Co., No. 5:09-cv-05341-JF (HRL), 2011 WL 4403717, at *3 (N.D. Cal. Sept. 20, 12 2011) (“The Ziegenfelders are excluded from the settlement. . . . Because they are not members of 13 the class, the Ziegenfelders lack standing to object.”); Hydroxycut, 2013 WL 5275618, at *2 14 (“[N]either Mr. Blanchard nor Ms. McBean have satisfied their burden of establishing that they 15 are class members and therefore have standing to object to the proposed settlement.”).
16 Accordingly, the Court strikes the objections of the ORS and NRS Subclasses. See Miller v.
17 Ghirardelli Chocolate Co., No. 12-cv-04936-LB, 2015 WL 758094, at *10 (N.D. Cal. Feb. 20, 18 2015) (“The court [] finds that all three objectors lack standing and strikes their objections”).

19 IV. CLASS CERTIFICATION

20 A. Legal Standard

21 Class certification under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23 is a two-step process. First, a 22 plaintiff must demonstrate that the four requirements of Rule 23(a) are met: numerosity,
23 commonality, typicality, and adequacy. Wang v. Chinese Daily News, Inc., 737 F.3d 538, 542-44
24 (9th Cir. 2013). “Class certification is proper only if the trial court has concluded, after a ‘rigorous 25 analysis,’ that Rule 23(a) has been satisfied.” Id. (quoting Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., 564 U.S. at 351).

26 Second, a plaintiff must establish that the action meets one of the bases for certification in 27 Rule 23(b). IPP Plaintiffs rely on Rule 23(b)(3) and must therefore establish that “questions of 28 law or fact common to class members predominate over any questions affecting only individual

1 members, and that a class action is superior to other available methods for fairly and efficiently
2 adjudicating the controversy.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3).

3 When determining whether to certify a class for settlement purposes, a court must pay
4 “heightened” attention to the requirements of Rule 23. Amchem Prods., Inc. v. Windsor, 521 U.S.
5 591, 620 (1997). “Such attention is of vital importance, for a court asked to certify a settlement 6 class will lack the opportunity, present when a case is litigated, to adjust the class, informed by the 7 proceedings as they unfold.” Id.

8 B. Discussion

9 1. Numerosity, Commonality, Predominance, and Superiority

10 In its 2016 Final Approval Order, the Court made findings regarding numerosity, 11 commonality, predominance, and superiority. See ECF No. 4712 at 7, 36.

12 The Court found that the 22 Indirect Purchaser State Classes satisfied Rule 23(a)’s
13 numerosity and commonality requirements because: (1) “millions of people in the United States
14 purchased CRT products during the class period” and (2) there are “questions of law and fact 15 common to the Class, including whether the Defendants engaged in a price-fixing conspiracy that 16 injured Plaintiffs when they paid more for CRT Products than they would have absent the alleged 17 price-fixing conspiracy.” ECF No. 4351 at 26; see ECF No. 4712 at 7 (adopting the Special 18 Master’s Rule 23 analysis and incorporating it by reference in the Final Approval Order).

19 The Court also concluded that the classes satisfied Rule 23(b)(3)’s predominance and 20 superiority criteria because: (1) “all IPPs are alleged to have paid overcharges that were caused by 21 the defendants’ alleged price-fixing activities” and (2) “the damages of most individual class 22 members are relatively small compared to the cost of the litigation, making it difficult for 23 individual class members to adjudicate their claims individually.” See ECF No. 4712 at 7, 36
24 (adopting Special Master’s report and recommendation, ECF No. 4351 at 22-29). Moreover, in 25 price-fixing cases, such as this, “courts repeatedly have held that the existence of the conspiracy is 26 the predominant issue and warrants certification even when significant individual issues are 27 present.” Thomas & Thomas Rodmakers, Inc. v. Newport Adhesives and Composites, Inc., 209
28

1 F.R.D. 159, 167 (C.D. Cal. 2002) (quoting In re NASDAQ Market-Makers Antitrust Litig., 169
2 F.R.D. 493, 518 (S.D.N.Y.).

3 No parties objected to the Court’s findings regarding the numerosity, commonality,
4 predominance, and superiority of the 22 Indirect Purchaser State Classes in the original settlement.
5 See ECF No. 4712 at 7. Because the amended settlements do not alter the composition of these 6 classes, the Court adopts the reasoning from its previous Final Approval Order. See Giroux v.
7 Essex Property Trust, Inc., No. 16-cv-01722-HSG, 2019 WL 2106587, at *2 (N.D. Cal. May 14, 8 2019) (approving stipulated amendments to class settlement after final approval and 9 “incorporat[ing] by reference prior analysis under Rules 23(a) and (b)” because “no facts that 10 would affect these requirements have changed since the Court preliminarily approved the class”).

11 2. Typicality – Rule 23(a)(3)

12 Under Rule 23(a)(3), “representative claims are ‘typical’ if they are reasonably coextensive 13 with those of absent class members; they need not be substantially identical.” Just Film, Inc. v.
14 Buono, 847 F.3d 1108, 1116 (9th Cir. 2017) (citations omitted). “Measures of typicality include
15 whether other members have the same or similar injury, whether the action is based on conduct 16 which is not unique to the named plaintiffs, and whether other class members have been injured by 17 the same course of conduct.” Id. (internal quotation marks and citations omitted).

18 The Court finds that the claims of the representative parties are typical of the claims of the 19 class. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(3). In its previous Final Approval Order the Court found that “the 20 claims of the representative Plaintiffs are typical of the claims of the class members because they 21 all indirectly purchased CRT products at supra-competitive levels as a result of the alleged price-
22 fixing conspiracy during the relevant time period.” ECF No. 4351 at 26; see ECF No. 4712 at 7
23 (adopting the Special Master’s Rule 23 analysis). The Court adopts this reasoning with respect to 24 the representative plaintiffs common to the original and amended settlements.

25 The amended settlements appoint new class representatives for the states of Hawaii,
26 Nevada, New Mexico, and South Dakota. These newly appointed class representatives also satisfy 27 the Rule 23(a)(3) typicality requirement. Each representative “purchased CRT Products from one 28 or more of the Defendants or their co-conspirators” during the Class Period. ECF No. 5589 ¶¶ 26,

1 37, 38, 44. Moreover, each representative alleges that he/she suffered the same injury as other
 2 class members – being overcharged for CRT products as a result of the alleged CRT conspiracy.
 3 See id; ECF No. 5589 ¶¶ 225-242.

4 3. Adequacy of Representation – Rule 23(a)(4)

5 Rule 23(a)(4) permits certification of a class action only if “the representative parties will 6 fairly and adequately protect the interest of the class.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(4); Nielson v. The 7 Sports Authority, No. C 11-4724 SBA, 2013 WL 3957764, at *6 (N.D. Cal. July 29, 2013). “To 8 determine whether named plaintiffs will adequately represent a class, courts must resolve two 9 questions: ‘(1) do the named plaintiffs and their counsel have any conflicts of interest with other 10 class members and (2) will the named plaintiffs and their counsel prosecute the action vigorously
 11 on behalf of the class?’” Ellis v. Costco Wholesale Corp., 657 F.3d 970, 985 (9th Cir. 2011)
 12 (quoting Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1027 (9th Cir. 1998)).

13 At this stage, the Court is satisfied with IPP Plaintiffs’ demonstration that the 14 representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class. “Given the 15 identity of issues shared by the class and proposed class representatives, the named plaintiffs’
 16 interests are sufficiently aligned with those of the class.” See Bostick v. Herbalife Int’l of Am.,
 17 Inc., No. CV 13-2488 BRO (SHx), 2015 WL 12731932, at *8 (C.D. Cal. May 14, 2015).

18 Moreover, IPP Plaintiffs’ and class counsel have vigorously prosecuted this action on behalf of the 19 22 Indirect Purchaser State Classes. See id. First, named plaintiffs and class counsel “conducted 20 extensive discovery and engaged in multiple mediation and negotiation sessions before reaching”
 21 the original and amended settlements. See id. at *14; ECF No. 3862 ¶¶ 12, 15; ECF No. 5587-1
 22 ¶¶ 2-3. Discovery leading up to the settlements has required production and review of millions of 23 documents and the taking of hundreds of depositions, all conducted over eight-plus years. See
 24 ECF No. 3862 ¶¶ 12, 15. Second, IPP Lead Counsel has “invested considerable time in this case 25 and ha[s] substantial experience with class action litigation.” See Bostick, 2015 WL 12731932, at 26 *14; ECF No. 4073-1 at 6-15. Third, the new named plaintiffs have affirmed their understandings
 27 of the allegations in the case and their genuine interest in this litigation. ECF No. 5587-1 ¶ 4.
 28 Each new named plaintiff has “reviewed the pleadings, the settlement agreements and the

1 Amendments thereto, and, in consultation with their lawyers, have approved them on behalf of 2 their respective states.” Id. “This is sufficient to demonstrate adequacy under Rule 23(a).” See
 3 Bostick, 2015 WL 12731932, at *14.

4 During the 2016 final approval process, several objectors argued that the absence of 5 recovery by the ORS and NRS Subclasses suggested a conflict of interest between the 22 Indirect
 6 Purchaser State Classes and certain members of the Nationwide Class. See, e.g., ECF No. 4113 at 7 8; ECF No. 4125 at 4-5; see Ellis, 657 F.3d at 985 (“To determine whether named plaintiffs will
 8 adequately represent a class, courts must resolve” whether “the named plaintiffs and their counsel
 9 have any conflict of interest with other class members.”). The amended settlements eliminate 10 these concerns. On remand, the Court appointed separate counsel to represent the ORS Subclass
 11 and NRS Subclass. ECF Nos. 5535, 5518; see Ortiz v. Fibreboard Corp., 527 U.S. 815, 819, 856 12 (1999) (discussing division of a class “into homogeneous subclasses . . . with separate 13 representation to eliminate conflicting interests of counsel” when class members have divergent 14 interests). Additionally, by narrowing the settlement Class to include only the 22 Indirect
 15 Purchaser State Classes, the amendments remove potential conflicts of interests that could result 16 from differences in claims and relief sought by the 22 Indirect Purchaser State Classes verses the 17 ORS and NRS Subclasses. See Campbell v. Best Buy Stores, L.P., No. LA CV 12-07794 JAK 18 (SHx), 2015 WL 12744268, at *5 (noting conflicts of interest that arise from “differences in the 19 type of relief sought, the amount or seriousness of damages sought,” and “the theories of law or 20 fact that may benefit some class members”). Therefore, the amendments moot the adequacy-of-21 representation concerns expressed by objectors to the original settlement.

22 For the foregoing reasons, the Court concludes that provisional certification of the 23 proposed class is appropriate for the purposes of settlement.

24 V. PRELIMINARY APPROVAL

25 The IPP Plaintiffs seek approval of their amended settlement agreements and an order 26 directing limited notice to the putative class and setting a fairness hearing. ECF No. 5587 at 37.
 27 The Court finds that preliminary approval of the settlement is warranted and grants IPP Plaintiffs’
 28 request for limited notice.

1           A.       Legal Standard

2           The Ninth Circuit maintains a “strong judicial policy” that favors the settlement of class
3 actions. Class Plaintiffs v. City of Seattle, 955 F.2d 1268, 1276 (9th Cir. 1992). The proposed
4 settlement need not be ideal, but it must be fair, free of collusion, and consistent with counsel’s 5 fiduciary obligations to the class. Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1027, overruled on other grounds by 6 Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v. Dukes, 564 U.S. 338 (2011) (“Settlement is the offspring of compromise;
7 the question we address is not whether the final product could be prettier, smarter or snazzier, but 8 whether it is fair, adequate and free from collusion.”). “The initial decision to approve or reject a 9 settlement proposal is committed to the sound discretion of the trial judge.” City of Seattle, 955
10 F.2d at 1276 (citation omitted).

11           Rule 23 requires courts to employ a two-step process in evaluating class action settlements.
12 First, courts preliminarily approve the settlement and authorize notice to the class. See Wilson v.
13 Tesla, No. 17-cv-03763-JSC, 2019 WL 2929988, at *4 (N.D. Cal. July 8, 2019). Second, courts 14 conduct a hearing to make a final determination of whether a settlement is “fair, reasonable, and 15 adequate.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2).

16           The court’s task at the preliminary approval stage is to determine whether the settlement
17 falls “within the range of possible approval.” In re Tableware Antitrust Litig., 484 F. Supp. 2d 18 1078, 1079 (N.D. Cal. 2007) (citation omitted). To guide this analysis, courts look to the four 19 overarching factors contained in recently-amended Rule 23(e)(2) and consider whether:

- 20           (A) the class representatives and class counsel have adequately represented the class;
21           (B) the proposal was negotiated at arm’s length;
22           (C) the relief provided for the class is adequate; and 23           (D) the proposal treats class members equitably relative to each other.

24 Shin v. Plantronics, No. 18-cv-05626-NC, 2019 WL 2515827, at *4 (N.D. Cal. July 17, 2019); see 25 Manual for Complex Litigation, Fourth (“MCL, 4th”) § 21.632 (FJC 2004) (explaining that courts 26 “must make a preliminary determination on the fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy of the 27 settlement terms”). The amendments to Rule 23 do “not ‘displace any factor’ previously 28

1 announced by the Ninth Circuit,<sup>12</sup> but instead ‘focus the court and the lawyers on the core 2 concerns of procedure and substance that should guide the decision whether to approve the 3 proposal.’” Shin, 2019 WL 2515827, at *4; see Advisory Committee Notes, Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, 4 subdiv. (e)(2) (2018). Thus, courts may apply the framework set forth in Rule 23, “while 5 continuing to draw guidance from the Ninth Circuit’s factors and relevant precedent.” Hefler v.
6 Wells Fargo & Co., No. 16-cv-05479-JST, 2018 WL 6619983, at *4 (N.D. Cal. Dec. 18, 2018).

7 Settlements that occur before formal class certification require a higher standard of 8 fairness. In re Mego Fin. Corp. Sec. Litig., 213 F.3d 454, 458 (9th Cir. 2011). “In reviewing such 9 settlements, in addition to considering the above factors, the court also must ensure that ‘the 10 settlement is not the product of collusion among the negotiating parties.’” Hefler, 2018 WL
11 6619983, at *4 (quoting In re Bluetooth Headset Prods. Liab. Litig., 654 F.3d 935, 946-47 (9th 12 Cir. 2011)). Courts “must be particularly vigilant not only for explicit collusion, but also for more
13 subtle signs that class counsel have allowed pursuit of their own self-interests and that of certain 14 class members to infect the negotiations.” In re Bluetooth, 654 F.3d 935, 947 (9th Cir. 2011).

15 A proposed settlement must be “taken as a whole, rather than the individual component 16 parts,” in the examination for overall fairness. Id. at 948 (emphasis omitted). Courts do not have 17 the ability to “delete, modify, or substitute certain provisions.” Id. A settlement “must stand or 18 fall in its entirety.” Id. (citation and emphasis omitted).

19 B. Discussion

20 1. Adequacy of Representation – Rule 23(e)(2)(A)

21 Adequacy of representation requires that two questions be addressed: (1) “do the named 22 plaintiffs and their counsel have any conflicts of interest with other class members” and (2) “will 23 the named plaintiffs and their counsel prosecute the action vigorously on behalf of the class?”
24

25 <sup>12</sup> Ninth Circuit precedent instructs district courts to balance the following factors: “(1) the 26 strength of the plaintiffs’ case; (2) the risk, expense, complexity, and likely duration of further 27 litigation; (3) the risk of maintaining class action status throughout the trial; (4) the amount offered 28 in settlement; (5) the extent of discovery completed and the stage of the proceedings; (6) the experience and views of counsel; (7) the presence of a governmental participant; and (8) the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.” Churchill Village, L.L.C. v. General Electric, 361 F.3d 566, 575 (9th Cir. 2004) (citing Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1026).

1 Hefler, 2018 WL 6619983, at *6. As discussed above, IPP Plaintiffs have demonstrated that the 2 representative parties and their counsel will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the 22
 3 Indirect Purchaser State Classes. Moreover, the amended settlement eliminates the conflicts-of-4 interest concerns raised by objectors to the original settlement. Therefore, this factor weighs in 5 favor of preliminary approval.

6 2. Arm’s Length Negotiations – Rule 23(e)(2)(B)

7 Both the original and amended settlements were the product of arm’s length negotiations.
 8 Two former jurists “provided their experienced input into the parties’ [original] settlement 9 negotiations.” ECF No. 4351 at 34; see Advisory Committee Notes, Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, subdiv.
 10 (e)(2) (2018) (“[T]he involvement of a neutral or court-affiliated mediator or facilitator in []
 11 negotiations may bear on whether they were conducted in a manner that would protect and further 12 the class interests.”). The amended settlements were a product of negotiations conducted during 13 two mediation sessions supervised by Magistrate Judge Corley. ECF No. 5587-1 ¶¶ 2-3; see 14 Hefler, 2018 WL 6619983, at *6 (noting mediation sessions supervised by former judge as an 15 indication of arm’s length negotiations).

16 Pursuant to Ninth Circuit precedent, the Court must also examine the settlements for 17 additional indicia of collusion that would undermine seemingly arm’s length negotiations. See In 18 re Bluetooth, 654 F.3d at 946 (“Prior to formal class certification, . . . agreements must withstand 19 an even higher level of scrutiny for evidence of collusion or other conflicts of interest.”). Signs of 20 collusion include: (1) a disproportionate distribution of the settlement fund to counsel; (2)
 21 negotiation of a “clear sailing provision”; and (3) an arrangement for funds not awarded to revert 22 to defendant rather than to be added to the settlement fund. Id. at 947. If “multiple indicia of 23 possible implicit collusion” are present, a district court has a “special ‘obligat[ion] to assure itself
 24 that the fees awarded in the agreement were not unreasonably high.” Id. (quoting Staton v. Boeing 25 Co., 327 F.3d 938, 965 (9th Cir. 2003)).

26 The Court finds no indicia of collusion that would undermine the amended settlements.
 27 First, the amended settlements request an attorney fee award of 23.66% of the settlement fund.
 28 ECF No. 5587 at 29; see ECF No. 5587-1 at 7-8, 13-14, 19-20, 25-26, 31-32, 38-39; In re

1 Bluetooth, 654 F.3d at 941-42 (“[C]ourts typically calculate 25% of the fund as the ‘benchmark’
 2 for a reasonable fee award.”). Second, the amended settlements – like the original agreements –
 3 do not contain a reversion clause. ECF No. 4712 at 15. Although the agreements contain a “clear 4 sailing” provision, the Court finds no cause for concern because Class Counsel’s fee will be
 5 awarded from the same common fund as the recovery to the class. Rodriguez v. West Publ’g
 6 Corp., 563 F.3d 948, 961 n.5 (9th Cir. 2009); see also Bayat v. Bank of the West, No. C-13-2376
 7 EMC, 2015 WL 1744342, at *7 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 15, 2015) (“[B]ecause any attorneys’ fees award
 8 will come out of the common fund, there is no ‘clear sailing’ agreement here that would warrant 9 against settlement approval.”).

10 3. Adequate Relief for the Class – Rule 23(e)(2)(C)

11 To determine whether the relief provided for the class is adequate, courts must consider:

12 (i) the costs, risks, and delay of trial and appeal, (ii) the effectiveness of any proposed method of 13 distributing relief to the class, (iii) the terms of any proposed award of attorney’s fees, and (iv) any 14 agreement required to be identified under Rule 23(e)(3). Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(C).

15 a. Costs, Risks, and Delay

16 In the previous Final Approval Order, this Court found that the IPP Plaintiffs would have 17 faced several hurdles in the absence of a settlement – hurdles that “weigh[ed] strongly in favor of 18 approving the Proposed Settlements.” ECF No. 4712 at 9. The Court noted that there was a 19 “great risk to IPPs in continuing to pursue litigation, including both uncertainty over the results of 20 pending motions and challenges (and delay) in collecting any winnings.” Id. (internal quotation
 21 marks omitted); see also ECF No. 4351 at 30-32. In light of these costs, risks, and potential 22 delays, the Court determined that the settlements were “a good recovery and firmly in line with the 23 recoveries in other cases.” ECF No. 4712 at 10.

24 The Court need not revisit these findings. The proposed amended settlements reduce the 25 amounts paid by each Defendant but fully offset these amounts by requested corresponding 26 reductions in class counsel’s attorney fee award. ECF No. 5587 at 17; see ECF No. 5587-1 at 7-8, 27 13-14, 19-20, 25-26, 31-32, 38-39. Because the net settlement fund available for distribution to 28 class members remains the same, these settlements remain a “good recovery” in light of the costs,

1 risks, and delay of trial and appeal.

2 b. Distribution Method

3 In the prior Final Approval Order, the Court examined and approved the settlements’
 4 proposed plan of distribution. ECF No. 26-29. This plan provides for (1) a “weighted pro-rata
 5 distribution to all members of the 22 Indirect Purchaser State Classes that filed valid claims,” (2) a
 6 minimum payment of at least $25 per claimant, and (3) a maximum payment of “three times the 7 estimated money damages per claimant.” ECF No. 5587 at 30; see ECF No. 3862 ¶¶ 43-50. The 8 amended settlements do not alter this proposed allocation plan, and the Court again approves it.

9 c. Attorney’s Fees

10 Class Counsel have stated that they intend to apply for an award of attorneys’ fees totaling 11 23.66% of the settlement fund along with expenses incurred during the litigation. The Court
 12 previously awarded $158,606,250 in attorney’s fees in connection with the prior IPP Settlement
 13 after considering counsels’ motion for attorney’s fees and any objections thereto. ECF No. 4740
 14 at 2. The proposed Amendments provide that Class Counsel will request the Court to reduce that 15 fee award by $29,000,000 to fully offset the reduction in the settlement amounts, and ensure that 16 the reductions do not adversely affect the funds available for distribution to claimants. ECF No.
 17 5587 at 17. In addition, all interest earned on the original settlement amounts from the date of 18 deposit in 2015—approximately $13,000,000—will remain in the fund for the benefit of class 19 members (except that Class Counsel shall still be entitled to seek a share of the accrued interest on 20 the fund proportionate to their fee and expense award).<sup>13</sup> Id.

21 4. Equitable Treatment of Class Members – Rule 23(e)(2)(D)

22 Consistent with Rule 23's instruction to consider whether “the proposal treats class 23 members equitably relative to each other,” Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(2)(C)(i), the Court now considers 24

25 _____
 26 <sup>13</sup> Any member of the 22 Indirect Purchaser State Classes who submitted a claim in or objected to 27 the 2016 Settlements may now ask the Court to object to the attorney’s fees award. ECF No.
 28 5587-2 at 18. By definition, that award will be lower both in absolute numbers and on an hourly basis than the award the Court approved in 2016 – particularly given that counsels’ work in reaching the current agreement will not be separately compensated. Under these circumstances, there is no need for class counsel to file a further motion for attorney’s fees, and the deadlines the Court has set do not provide for one.

1 whether the Settlement “improperly grant[s] preferential treatment to class representatives or 2 segments of the class.” In re Tableware Antitrust Litig., 484 F. Supp. 2d at 1079.

3 In the previous Final Approval Order, the Court examined and approved the allocation of 4 settlement funds among the 22 Indirect Purchaser State Classes. As noted above, the original
5 settlement provided for (1) a “weighted pro-rata distribution to all members of the 22 Indirect
6 Purchaser State Classes that filed valid claims,” (2) a minimum payment of at least $25 per 7 claimant, and (3) a maximum payment of “three times the estimated money damages per 8 claimant.” ECF No. 5587 at 30; see ECF No. 3862 ¶¶ 43-50. The plan “assign[ed] different 9 weights to different CRT products based on the overcharge evidence for each.” ECF No. 5587 at 10 30; see ECF No. 3862 ¶¶ 44-49. The amended settlements do not alter this proposed allocation.

11 As discussed in the prior Final Approval Order, “[i]t is reasonable to allocate the 12 settlement funds to class members based on . . . the strength of their claims on the merits.” In re
13 Omnivision Techs., Inc., No. C-04-2297 SC, 2007 WL 4293467, at *7 (N.D. Cal. Dec. 6, 2007)
14 (internal quotation marks and citations omitted). Because “reimburs[ing] class members based on 15 the extent of their injuries is generally reasonable,” the Court finds that this factor weighs in favor
16 of preliminary approval. See In re Oracle Sec. Litig., No. 90-cv-00931-VRW, 1994 WL 502054, 17 at * 1 (N.D. Cal. June 18, 1994).

18 In sum, the Court finds that the Rule 23(e) factors will likely weigh in favor of granting 19 final approval. Because the Court will likely find the amended settlements to be fair, reasonable, 20 and adequate at the final approval stage, preliminary approval of the settlement is warranted.

21 5. Proposed Notice Plan

22 Before the district court approves a class settlement, “it is ‘critical’ that class members 23 receive adequate notice.” In re Hyundai and Kia Fuel Economy Litig., 926 F.3d 539, 567 (9th Cir.
24 2019) (citing Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1025). “Notice is satisfactory if it ‘generally describes the terms
25 of the settlement in sufficient detail to alert those with adverse viewpoints to investigate and to 26 come forward and be heard.’” Id. (quoting Churchill Vill., LLC v. Gen. Elec., 361 F.3d 566, 575 27 (9th Cir. 2004)). If a fairness hearing leads to “substantial changes” in the settlement which 28 “adversely affect[] some members of the class, additional notice, followed by an opportunity to be

1 heard, might be necessary.” In re Anthem, Inc. Data Breach Litig., 327 F.R.D. 299, 330 (N.D.
 2 Cal. 2018). “The pertinent question here is whether the changes adversely affect the class
 3 members.” Id. (emphasis in original).

4 a. Original Notice Plan

5 Class members of the 22 Indirect Purchaser States have already received “the best notice
 6 that is practicable under the circumstances.” See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)(B). After this Court
 7 preliminarily approved the original settlements, the claims administrator carried out a notice plan 8 which included: (1) mail and email notices sent to 10,082,690 unique addresses, (2) publication of 9 notice on the settlement website, (3) advertisements on Google, Facebook, and other popular 10 websites, and (4) print and online publications throughout the United States, in both English and 11 Spanish. See ECF No. 4071-1 ¶ 114; ECF No. 4371 ¶¶ 4-13. These notices directed recipients to 12 the settlement website. See ECF No. 4371 ¶¶ 9-13. They also advised class members of material
 13 settlement terms, the plan of distribution, and class counsel’s intent to apply for an attorney fee 14 award of up to one-third of the settlement fund. ECF No. 4071-1 ¶ 115. As the Court found in its 15 prior Final Approval Order, this plan “provided the best practicable notice to class members.”
 16 ECF No. 4712 at 9.

17 b. Additional Notice

18 The IPP Plaintiffs’ amendments to the settlement agreements do not require additional 19 notice. The amended settlements “provide the same benefits to the members of the 22 Indirect 20 Purchaser State Classes.” ECF No. 5587 at 32; see ECF No. 5587-1 at 7-8, 13-14, 19-20, 26-26, 21 31-33, 38-39. While the amendments reduce the gross settlement fund by $29,000,000, “that 22 reduction is fully offset by a $29,000,000 reduction in Class Counsel’s fee request.” Id.
 23 Therefore, the settlement does not have a “material adverse effect on the rights of class members”
 24 and there is no reason to conclude that those class members who failed to object or opt out would 25 now choose to do so. See Anthem, 327 F.R.D. at 330 (finding that, where amendment did not 26 adversely affect class members, “there is no overriding reason to conclude that those Settlement 27 Class Members who failed to opt out would now choose to do so.”).

28 The amendments also do not adversely affect the rights of the ORS and NRS Subclasses

1 which were included in the original settlement. Because the amendments narrow the settlement
2 Class, the release no longer applies to the ORS and NRS Subclasses. See ECF No. 5587-1 at 7, 3 13, 19, 25, 31, 38. These groups retain any claims that they previously possessed, if any, and they 4 are free to pursue those claims against the Defendants. Therefore, the parties need not provide any 5 additional notice to members of the current or former settlement classes.

6 Although not required, the IPP Plaintiffs request that the court authorize that limited
7 notification be sent to certain class members. In particular, they propose to send notification of 8 settlement amendments to class members who filed claims, objected to the settlements, requested
9 updates regarding the settlements, or requested exclusion from the settlement class. ECF No.
10 5587 at 34. These notices would advise recipients of their opportunities to object to the 11 amendments, object to the requested fee award, and appear at the fairness hearing. Id. at 34-35;
12 ECF No. 5587-3 at 5-18. They would not, however, enable recipients to exclude themselves or 13 rejoin the settlement. ECF No. 5587-3 at 5-18. Some courts have given opt-outs an opportunity 14 to rejoin a settlement when amended. See Anthem, 327 F.R.D. at 331 (“[T]he change to the 15 Settlement could materially affect their decision to opt out. Thus, they deserved an opportunity to 16 reconsider their decisions based on the terms of the amended Settlement.”). Where, as here, the 17 amended settlements provide the same benefits to class members as were available in the original 18 settlement, the Court finds it unnecessary to provide opt-outs an opportunity to rejoin the 19 settlement. Therefore, the Court grants IPP Plaintiffs’ request to provide limited notice to certain 20 class members.

21 CONCLUSION

22 For the foregoing reasons, the Court GRANTS IPP Plaintiffs’ motion pursuant to Ninth 23 Circuit mandate to reconsider. The proposed class is hereby provisionally certified for the 24 purposes of settlement. The Court grants preliminary approval of the amended settlements and 25 approves the proposed limited notice procedure and forms. The Court will hold a final approval 26 hearing on July 8, 2020.
